

Project name:	Preparation of project-technical documentation of the Center of Professional Excellence in Bioeconomics
Description:	Preparation of project-technical documentation for the expansion and equipping of the future "Center of Professional Excellence in Bioeconomy" represents the next development phase of professional excellence in Brod-Posavina County. The project partners are the University of Slavonski Brod and the most innovative Croatian agricultural high school, which is based on biotechnological research and development, use of modern equipment, tools and technologies used by students in the practice of bioeconomic activities, with emphasis on digitalization and automation in agriculture production with programs tailored to people with disabilities.
Webpage:
Source of finances:	Competitiveness and Cohesion Operational Program 2014.-2020.
Beneficiary:	Brod-Posavina County
Partners:	High School Matija Antun Reljković, University of Slavonski Brod
Project budget:	1.750.902,39 HRK
Duration:	October 2020. - November 2022.
Location:	Slavonski Brod
Target groups:	The target group of the project "Preparation of project-technical documentation of the Center of Professional Excellence in Bioeconomy" are the Unit of Regional Self-Government Brod-Posavina County, High School "Matija Antun Reljković", Biotechnical Department of the University of Slavonski Brod which will be ready planning and implementation of measures aimed at the use of EU funds.
Objectives:	The aim of the project is to prepare project-technical documentation for the expansion and equipping of the future "Center of Professional Excellence in Bioeconomy" which relates to nutrition, bioeconomy, education, regional infrastructure and the creation of regional development centers based on smart specialization. In this way, the general capacities at the local and regional level for adequate planning and implementation of measures aimed at the use of EU funds will be strengthened.