

Service name:	Education and training for people who conduct energy audits for large companies
Service description:	According to the Regulation on Energy Audits for Large Companies (Official Gazette 123/15 and OG 27/91), the training of participants for the implementation of energy audits in large companies includes the training of participants in the basics of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - technical equipment and devices commonly used in large enterprises; - conducting and reporting on the energy audit; - preparation of a simple techno-economic analysis of the proposed saving measures; - optimization of the heat exchange system; - energy measurements and measuring devices. The training consists of 44 hours of classes and a written exam The authorized person is obliged to undergo professional training on a regular basis. Continuing professional education means attending a continuing professional education seminar every two (2) years with the training program holder for a period of eight (8) hours during the validity of the authorization.
Webpage:
Manager/ Coordinator:	Josip Jukić, PhD
Associates:
Contact details:	jjukic@unisb.hr tel: 035-494-447
Price:	Available on request
Additional remarks:	