

Project name:	Responsible consumers!
Description:	Implementing the project will increase the awareness and education of citizens about the possibility and importance of rational use of plastic, change consumer habits in waste disposal, and emphasize the importance of recycling by pointing to examples of good practice with emphasis on creating raw materials from waste.
Webpage:
Source of finances:	Ministry of Economy and Sustainable Development
Beneficiary:	Consumer - Croatian Consumer Protection Society
Partners:	College of Slavonski Brod
Project budget:	116.290,80 HRK
Duration:	January 12, 2019 – June, 12 2020
Location:	Slavonski Brod, Karlovac
Target groups:	Consumers of Brod-Posavina County, and direct end users are high school students, students and all other interested consumers from the area of Eastern Slavonia.
Objectives:	The aim of the project is for consumers to participate in the circular economy and sustainable development by changing their habits when disposing of waste, rationally using plastic and being responsible consumers.